

Personal Independence Payment	Personal Independence Payment (PIP) is paid if you find it difficult to carry out daily tasks or get about. Two types:	Daily Living Mobility
ESA if you can't work because of sickness or disability	Employment and Support Allowance (ESA) is paid if you can't work or can only work a few hours a week because of sickness or disability. Two types:	Contributory Income-related (NB: This includes free dental treatment for those on ESA. You're also entitled to this if you or your partner – including civil partner – receive, or you're under the age of 20 and the dependant of someone receiving: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Income Support • Income-related Employment and Support Allowance • Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance • Pension Credit Guarantee Credit • Universal Credit and meet the criteria)
Disability Living Allowance	You can only make a new claim for Disability Living Allowance (DLA) for children under 16. It is not means tested you could get it regardless of how much income or savings you have.	For adults DLA is being replaced by PIP (See our Tips for claiming)
Severe Disability Allowance	Severe Disablement Allowance has been replaced with Employment and Support Allowance (ESA)	Jobcentre Plus will re-assess your Severe Disablement Allowance claim to see if you're capable of work or eligible for ESA. (Beware, you need to prepare the evidence well for this process).

Attendance Allowance	You might qualify for Attendance Allowance if: You need help with personal care You need supervision to keep you safe You're aged 65 or over and have not previously claimed DLA/PIP
Benefits for carers	If you're caring for someone who is ill or disabled, it can affect your financial situation too. Help is available – you don't have to be related to or live with the person you care for.	